BRYAN DEMANDS THAT ROOSEVELT LET TAFT FIGHT

Nebraskan Declares President Is Degrading His High Office by Making It a Party Asset in the Interests of His Candidate.

MUSCATINE, Ia., Sept. 30.—William Jennings Bryan turned loose on President Roosevelt in vigorous fashion in a speech to the people of this city this afternoon. He declared that the time has come for the President to take his hands off and cease to try to direct the election from Washington. He wanted to know whether he was running against one man or two, whether Taft is not able to present his own principles and defend himself.

He denounced the President for degrading his office and seeking to make it a party asset. In referring to Mr. Taft he called him "the President's nominee."

RUNNING AGAINST TWO MEN.

"There is another issue of this campaign," Mr. Bryan said, "and that is whether I am running against one man or two men. I started out to run against Mr. Taft on the ground that they had picked a man big enough and able to defend himself. Now I find the President comes in and takes the lead in this fight."

"I don't object to it, but I do believe it is a degradation of the office of President to make that office which belongs to all the people a party asset in the hands of one party."

"I insist that the American people have a right to elect their officials without direction from Washington, and I ask the President after he has nominated Mr. Taft to stand aside and let us fight it out before the American people on our platforms."

Mr. Bryan has not made a speech in this campaign that aroused more enthusiasm than his attack upon the President's policy of trying to elect his successor. He was visibly pleased at the reception of his new material and will probably follow it up with a more extended attack in his next big speech. Muscatine was the first stop of consequence after the candidate crossed into Iowa from Rock Island, Ill., where he spoke last night. As the train reached the outskirts of the city factory whistles and bells sounded a ringing welcome. The noise was augmented when the train stopped at the station and the Muscatine Battery, composed of veterans of the civil war, fired a national salute.

Mr. Bryan started out along his regular lines, touching upon the failure of the Republican party to remedy abuses in government to reduce the tariff and to do anything for the laboring man, except try to persuade him that his wages would be reduced under a revision of the tariff. He made a point of the refusal of the Republican party to adopt a plank in the platform calling for publicity of campaign contributions before election, and this brought him up to the President's activity.

Mr. Bryan talked at several other places en route here. At Washington he was presented by a woman in the crowd with a Teddy bear, one leg of which was broken and done up in splints. "Badly crippled," was the candidate's comment. This veiled reference to the President set the people to laughing.

While speaking at Harper a bride and groom got on the train, and when he came back into the car Mr. Bryan handed the bride a bouquet, which he had received and which she bashfully accepted.

The principal speech of the day was made late this afternoon at Knoxville, which is celebrating "Home Coming Week," where a stop of three hours was made.

STEAMER RUNS DOWN EXCURSION LAUNCH.

SEATTLE, Sept. 30.—A wireless dispatch received here, states that the Canadian Pacific steamer Princess Victoria today ran down a launch crowded with excursionists. It is believed that several lives have been lost.

HAGGIN YEARLINGS SOLD.

NEWMARKET, Sept. 30.—A second batch of yearlings owned by James H. Haggin, of New York, was sold at auction here today. The horses numbered thirty-eight and sold for an aggregate of $20,000. There was a better attendance and keener bidding than yesterday. A filly by Watercross out of Guadalupe fetched $17,000.

"BROTHER-IN-LAW IN LOVE WITH ME," SAYS MRS. HAINS

Wife of Slayer of Annis Makes Affidavit Against T. Jenkins Hains.

The postponement until next Monday in the Brooklyn Supreme Court today of the action brought by Mrs. Peter C. Hains, wife of the slayer of William E. Annis, for the custody of her children delayed the presentation of a sensational affidavit made by the plaintiff in support of her motion.

In asking for the custody of her children, counsel fees and alimony, while fighting the divorce suit brought by her husband last June, Mrs. Hains also takes steps to protect her own reputation, which has been bitterly attacked by counsel employed by the Hains family.

While it has been charged by outsiders—friends of Mrs. Hains—that T. Jenkins Hains was in love with his brother's wife and poisoned his brother's mind against her, Mrs. Hains has refrained from discussing that phase of her affairs. In her affidavit, however, it was learned from good authority today, she makes the charge direct. The entire affidavit, in fact, is a sort of preliminary revelation of what the prosecution will seek to establish as motive underlying the killing of Annis by Capt. Hains and his brother.

Denies All Charges.

It consists of a general denial of all the charges made by her husband before and after the Annis tragedy, and specific denials on points which are to be urged as most material by the defense in the murder trial.

Mrs. Hains reiterates her charge of cruel treatment, denies that she wrote the "Dear Billy" letter, which it is charged, drove Capt. Hains to kill Annis in an insane rage, and denies any criminal intimacy with Annis.

She says that the alleged confession was obtained from her while she was in the murder trial.

THIRD RACE—Wise Mason 1, The Gardener 2, Spellbound 3.

FOURTH RACE—Pins and Needles 1, Cairngorm 2, Golconda 3.

FIFTH RACE—Milford 1, Killiecrankie 2, Lord Stanhope 3.

SIXTH RACE—Woodlawn 1, Adrienne 2, Lady Hubbard 3.

BY VINCENT TREANOR.

(Special to The Evening World.)

AQUEDUCT, Sept. 30.—Pins and Needles won the all aged handicap this afternoon easily from Cairngorm. Tiling, which had run with Pins and Needles all the way, quit badly in the stretch and McCahey on Golconda got up in time to nose him out of third money.

Pins and Needles was the fourth favorite of the day to go through, the memory bookers being hard hit. San Vito, Waterspeed and Wise Mason were the other good things.

Under the old betting conditions the lavers would have been badly burnt on the day's operations.

M. Krause claimed The Gardener, the second horse in the third race.

The sport opened with a victory for San Vito. Everybody had the tip on this one, he being regarded as a sure thing. San Vito won easily at the end after running in a forward position to the stretch. Constellation ran with him to the stretch, where he dropped back, after being out off, and Yankee Daughter then came on under the whip to finish a good second in front of May River.

Waterspeed Wins Chase.

Waterspeed won the steeplechase handicap rather handsily after following the pace to the backstretch last time round. Here she went to the front, stood off challenges of Locked Out and Rufus and came on to win by four lengths. Locked Out, which was the contender all the way, was second and Yama Christy, catching Rufus in the last fifty yards, got up in time to beat him out.

Wise Mason Won Easily.

Wise Mason was the talent's choice in the third event, but a rumor that he had run away in work and stable condition in The Gardener's charges caused a shift of feeling. Wise Mason, however, won the race, and won it easily after getting the rail at the stretch turn. Up to this point Withering Hour was in the lead. He weakened, however, in the stretch, and when Gilbert saw that Wise Mason had him he didn't persevere. This let The Gardener up to get the place money, and Spellbound coming very fast right at the end, headed Withering Hour out of third money.

Johnson's Horse Wins.

Davy Johnson won a purse with his recent purchase, Milford, in the fifth race. He won the race easily, although last time out Juggler beat him five lengths. Killiecrankie made a similar five-day period and when the experience of McCarthy over Lynch on the Daily mare told and Killiecrankie had to be content with the place money in front of Lord Stanhope.

MAJOR DELMAR OUTFOOTS FLEET SWEET MARIE.

(Special to The Evening World.)

BROCKTON, Mass., Sept. 30.—Major Delmar defeated Sweet Marie in their match race for a purse of $2,500 this afternoon at the Fair Grounds by winning two straight heats in succession. One of the largest crowds that has ever witnessed a trotting race in this vicinity was on hand. Major Delmar won the first heat in 2:13, and after a short rest came out and won the second heat by covering the distance in three-quarters of a second slower.

PULLIAM WILL GIVE TIE GAME TO THE GIANTS

President of National League Indicates What His Decision Will Be.

CLASHES WITH MURPHY.

Blames Chicago President for Delay and Says He Can't Have a Vote.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 30.—

Statements made here today by President Harry Pulliam, of the National League, indicate that he will decide the Chicago-Giant tie game squabble in favor of New York. President Pulliam left here today for Manhattan, stating he would announce his decision in New York tomorrow.

President Pulliam and President Murphy, of the Chicago Club, engaged in a verbal passage at arms today as a result of Murphy's demand that the decision be made at once. Pulliam declared Murphy was responsible for the delay, and also declared that in the event of an appeal from his decision he would not permit Murphy to vote as a member of the board. Mr. Pulliam said:

"It is not my desire to indulge in any personalities in the settlement of the great responsibility imposed upon me by reason of the controversy over the result of the Chicago-New York game of Sept. 23, but in justice to myself I cannot let go unchallenged the unwarranted statement of Mr. Murphy, president of the Chicago National League Club, as published in the Cincinnati papers of yesterday and today. I have not dogged any responsibility in this most unfortunate affair, nor do I propose to do so; but I am acting strictly in accordance with the law as laid down by the National League constitution and the rules governing the game."

Murphy Is Responsible.

"I am not responsible for the fact that this matter has been complicated and its settlement retarded by reason of the action of the Chicago club through its president in filing me three separate and distinct contentions and claims within a space of thirty-six hours. Immediately upon my return to New York to-morrow I will give the entire matter my most serious consideration and determine it as quickly as I can. In doing so, however, it should be borne in mind that I can only act after both clubs have been given the time as provided by the constitution to present their respective sides. Following this, if either the Chicago club or the New York club has any objection to my finding, the constitution will govern as to the manner and method of proceeding."

"Should an appeal be taken from my decision by either one of the clubs, and the matter taken to the Board of Directors, then, as president of the Board, I shall certainly oppose Mr. Murphy's contention, that he as an interested party and member of the Board of Directors can have a vote in the final adjudication. My action in doing so would be governed by that portion of section 18 of the constitution, which says: 'No shall any director sit in the trial of a cause in which his club is interested.'"

Murphy Waives Right.

President Murphy today announced that as the five days' limit within which New York must submit its evidence had expired today, he was willing to let the matter rest for a few minutes. He was unable to submit a similar five-day period and he demanded that President Pulliam make known his decision before leaving for New York this afternoon.

UMPIRE KERIN HAS LAWYER WHO STRUCK HIM ARRESTED.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—John Kerin, an umpire of the American League, today swore out a warrant for the arrest of Robert Cantwell, a lawyer who has gained local prominence in the defense of murder cases, charging the latter with assault.

Kerin, it is alleged, aroused the wrath of Cantwell by a decision adverse to Chicago in the Boston-Chicago game last Monday.

As the umpire was leaving the grounds he was charged that Cantwell, who mingled with the crowd, struck Kerin a blow which fractured his nose and rendered him unconscious for a few minutes. He was unable to umpire yesterday's game. Kerin said he had no opportunity to offer a defense, as he did not see his assailant. Cantwell appeared in court later and gave bail for a hearing.

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 30.—The fight for that tie game on the Polo Grounds last Wednesday is getting hotter; so word, in fact, that the temperature went up to summer Fahrenheit this morning, making the day an ideal one for the second mix-up between the Reds and the Cubs.

The first rise in temperature was brought about by a statement from President Pulliam answering President Murphy's accusation of procrastination, in which he declared that the Cub leader had muddled things up so by his claims that a decision could not be rendered off-hand and that he was not dodging an issue. He asserted further that Mr. Murphy as a member of the Board of Directors would not be allowed to sit in judgment on his own case. Manager Ganzel promised to give the PITTSBURG, Sept. 30.—This is getting away day in Pittsburgh in so far as baseball is concerned for this year of the regular scheduled games, but it is no sure thing that New York or Chicago will capture the flag so Pittsburgh has a good chance right now to see several world's championship games.

The games from now on will certainly be for blood. Not one of the three teams can afford to lose a game if they want to be in at the finish. Either of the Western teams from a local point have a better chance to win out than the Giants, as with St. Louis and Cincinnati Pittsburgh and Chicago have not as hard a task as the Giants have against Philadelphia or Boston.

Pittsburg should have no trouble to win from St. Louis to-day, while Chicago should win from the Reds, so it looks as if the game next Sunday at Chicago will have a whole lot to do with the pennant.
